

ELECTIONS AND VIOLENCE: Political Violence and Electoral Politics

Overview of Conference Schedule (October 24th to October 26th, 2022)

Author Names	Title of Paper
Day 1, 24th October, 12 PM to 1:45 PM: Consequences of Election Violence
Kathleen Klaus Megan Turnbull, Justine Davis Martin Ottmann, Sigrid Weber Kristine Höglund Ursula Daxecker	Political Violence and Barriers to Sustainable Peace: Evidence from Kenya Election Violence and Political Participation in Nigeria Internal Displacement and Vote Choice in Post-Conflict Elections: Evidence From Liberia Discussant Chair
Day 1, 24th October, 2 PM to 3:45 PM: Armed groups and Pro-Government Militias in Elections
Fabio D'Aguanno, Andrea Ruggeri Huseyin Zengin Andres Uribe E G Rød, K Höglund, S van Baalen Steve Rosenzweig Neeraj Prasad	Commitment Problems, Pro-government Militias, and the 1921 Post-Electoral Violence in Italy Election-led War on Insurgency Coercion and Capture in Democratic Politics Actor Constellations and Election Violence Discussant Chair
Day 1, 24th October, 4 PM to 5:45 PM: Violence in Electoral Campaigns
Alexander De Juan, H Thomson, Felix Haaß Alessandro Nai and Elizabeth L. Young Susan Banducci and Elizabeth Ablett Noyonika Das Justine Davis Rod Alence	With a Little Help From My Enemy: Spirals of Electoral Violence on Extremist Voting That Bloody Campaign: Negative, Uncivil Campaign Rhetoric, and Electoral Violence Campaign Ethnographies: Examining Women's Experiences on the Campaign Trail Violence in Local elections: Evidence from West Bengal, India Discussant Chair

Author Names	Title of Paper
Day 2, 25th October, 12 PM to 1:45 PM: The Subnational Dynamics of Election Violence
Sebastian Pantoja Barrios Rod Alence &amp; M. Anne Pitcher Ursula Daxecker &amp; Neeraj Prasad Roxana Gutiérrez-Romero Susan Banducci	Collective action and electoral participation under civil war: The case of Colombia Political Violence and the 2021 South African Municipal Elections Violence as an Electoral Strategy: Booth level Evidence from India Discussant Chair
Day 2, 25th October, 2 PM to 3:45 PM: Crime, Violence and Political Participation
Roxana Gutiérrez-Romero, Nayely Iturbe Manuel Pérez Aguirre Mariana Carvalho Fabio Ellger Dawn Brancati Martin Ottmann	Why Are Mexican Politicians Being Assassinated? The Role of Oil Theft and Narcocracy Do Disappearances Affect Voter Turnout? Mexican Mayoral Elections During 'War on Drugs' The Political Economy of Assassinations The Electoral Consequences of Politically Motivated Crime. New Evidence from Germany Discussant Chair
Day 2, 25th October, 4 PM to 5:45 PM: Election Violence in Africa
Justine Davis, Irene Morse Samuel Oyewole, J. Shola Omotola Maureen Fubara Steven Rosenzweig, Niloufer Siddiqui Megan Turnbull Fabio Ellger	Get Out the Vote with Violence: Opposition Mobilization in Violent Elections Instrumentality of Terror: Actors, Strategies, Weapons and Victims in Nigeria's 2019 Elections The Spoils of Office and election violence in Nigeria Conceptualizing Election-Related Violence Discussant Chair

Author Names	Title of Paper
Day 3, 26th October, 12 PM to 1:45 PM: Election Violence in South Asia
Ursula Daxecker, Neeraj Prasad Niranjan Sahoo, Ambar Kumar Ghosh Subhasish Ray, Holli A. Semetko Hanne Fjelde Alessandro Nai	Voting for Violence: Support for Party Violence in India Democracy and Political Violence: The Bengal Exceptionalism? Political Violence, Social Media Exposure, and Vote Choice: Evidence from 2021 West Bengal Discussant Chair
Day 3, 26th October, 2 PM to 3:45 PM: Non-State Actors in Electoral Violence
Dawn Brancati &amp; Nadine Sika Ahmed Ezzeldin Mohamed Burcu Kolcak Hanne Fjelde &amp; Annekatrin Deglow Kathleen Klaus Espen Geelmuyden Rød	Fuzzy Red Lines: The Role of Uncertainty in Dissent within Authoritarian Regimes Explaining Electoral Intimidation in Autocracies: Evidence from Mubarak's Egypt To Tolerate or Repress? Democratic Enclaves, Ethnic Authoritarianism, and Public Opinion Providing Security or Enforcing Partisan Interests? Public Trust in Coercive Institutions in Nigeria Discussant Chair
Day 3, 26th October, 4 PM to 5 PM: Round Table Discussion	